UCLA’s 10th Annual Brain Awareness Week
March 12-16, 2018
Gonda Neuroscience and Genetics Research Centre

Brain Awareness Week is a worldwide celebration of the brain, focused on increasing public awareness of the progress and benefits of brain research. UCLA is hosting around 300 students from elementary, middle and high schools from around the Los Angeles community to engage, inspire and motivate students to pursue careers in neuroscience!

Funded by UCLA’s Brain research Institute (BRI), Campus Program Committee of the Program Activities Board, and the Society for neuroscience (SfN).
For more information visit http://www.bri.ucla.edu/outreach/brain-awareness-week

Anatomy of the human brain
Brain injury station
Brain evolution station
Teaching kids about the brain
Elementary students holding a network of neurons
Neuroplasticity station
Visiting UCLA labs